

Wisconsin currently has a no-call law which works. Replacing it with the less protective federal version waters it down and brings unwanted unsolicited telephone calls back to Wisconsin dinnertimes. I want Wisconsin's law to stay just as it is now.